World Youth Day 2013

Yesterday (Saturday) our young people left for Rio de Janeiro for the World Youth Day. Our group are led by Fr. Anthony Caruana. We pray that they may have a safe and fruitful trip and that they come back refreshed and eager to animate the rest of the Diocese.

In Scotland, we have our own mini RIO: Thursday 25th—Sunday 28th July, for those who could not attend Rio in Brazil. At Stirling University Campus. It's £200 per person (plus £50 parish contribution) which includes all accommodation, meals and activities. More information: youth.office@dunkelddiocese.org.uk

◆ Nunraw Retreat

I think that we all enjoyed a good trip to Nunraw Abbey last Sunday. We had a nice little talk from Fr. Raymond Jaconelli on St John the Baptist (it was the eve of his feast day) and after a little break (and of course the obligatory cup of tea) there was another little input on the Mass.

◆ Remember the sick and housebound of the parish: Robert Moyes, Pat Gilhooley, Tony Matrondola, Sylvia Berry, Liz Davis, Rose McKay, May & James Muir, Jude Ferguson, Denis Davidson.

◆ Scalan

The Annual Pilgrimage to Scalan is taking place on Sunday 7 July 2013. More information from Fr Briody 01236 872537. Scalan (near Tomintoul) served as a secret Seminary for Scotland from 1716 until 1799.

◆ The Sunday collection has seen a marked increase in the last eighteen months or so. We appreciate the difficult economic situation at present and are therefore even more thankful. Please note that if you pay tax on income or investment you can Gift Aid your contribution. Signing a Gift Aid declaration means that the Parish recovers the tax that is due on your donation to the Parish. Speak to Fr. Tabone today. And if you want to pay by standing order directly into the Parish account, this too can be arranged. Today we have a second collection for Peter's Pence. This collection from around the world goes to the charities that are supported by the Vatican.

◆ In the porch there are various booklets and leaflets. You are free to take what you want. There are also copies of the Scottish Catholic Observer which sells at £1.
