Tony Matrondola, Sylvia Berry, Liz Davis, Rose McKay, May & James Muir, Jude Ferguson, Denis Davidson and Fr. Denis Cormican OMI

A New Archbishop

Now that Mgr. Leo Cushley has been consecrated Archbishop of St. Andrews & Edinburgh, please include him in your list of daily prayer intentions. He needs all the prayers that he can get. He has a difficult mission to perform: by the help of God and his Holy Mother, he will help the Church in Scotland to healthier and happier times.

Sciaf collection

That was a very good collection for the victims of the Syrian conflict. £224.60 has been raised so far. I will be posting the cheque tomorrow Monday. If anyone wishes to contribute there is still time. Thank you all for your generosity.

St Mary Magdalene's is a Parish of the Archdiocese of St. Andrews & Edinburgh, a charity registered in Scotland SCO08540

About St. Mary Magdalene's Church

Many of the furnishings in our church were made by members of the parish.

The Altar was made by Maxwell Allan to a design of the architect Mr J McRoberts and is of green Westmorland slate on a plinth of Scottish granite. Its shape is that of many of the most primitive altars of the 4th and succeeding centuries in Rome and elsewhere. These consisted, very often, of a slab of marble on top of a piece of a pillar from a pagan temple. Thus even the unholy works of paganism were made to serve the one true God.

This altar is the gift of an Edinburgh lady who would be embarrassed at being named. It weighs two and a half tons.

The WROUGHT IRON CANDLESTICKS here and elsewhere in the building were designed and made by Alexander MacKenzie of Magdalene.

The IRON LECTERN and CANDLE SCONCE in the baptistry were similarly designed and made by Patrick Hoy of Magdalene.

The CREDENCE TABLES here and in the weekday chapel and THE WOODEN LECTERNS were made and presented to the parish by the boys of St. Anthony's school.
