TWENTY-FORTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

11 September 2016

WELCOME!

If you're visiting, are new to the area, or just live here, you are most welcome in our sister parishes. We are delighted you have joined us. If you are new to the parish please make yourself known to Fr Jock and ask for details of how to register on the parishes' roll.

With this newsletter, there is a handout with, on one side, news from Mike Knox of a Twende Pamoja initiative for the International Day of Peace on 21 September, and – on the other – a reflection by Holy Rood pupil Bethany Burgess on her recent visit to TanzaniaMeanwhile, on the Sunday Plus, there is an update from Sr Margaret Mary in Rwanda.

CALLING ALL WOULD BE ALTAR SERVERS.... John Lauder writes: "Any young person who has made their first communion and would like to be an Altar Server is invited along to a taster and training session after Sunday Mass at either St John's or St Mary Magdalene's for a maximum of 45mins TODAY, 11 September". See John Lauder for more information. John's Contact details are 07710 626 697 and lauder.82@btinternet.com

AN ECUMENICAL PILGRIMAGE TO ASSISI: 9 – 16 September 2016

Fr Jock writes: 'Over 20 years ago, an Edinburgh based Church of Scotland Minister, Rev Tom Cuthell, visited Assisi on sabbatical and found his heart and soul nourished in a way he had never previously experienced. Since then he has led a pilgrimage there every year.

In 2004, he invited Cardinal Keith O'Brien to join him on an ecumenical pilgrimage. It was a memorable experience. Two years ago, he asked Archbishop Leo Cushley to participate in a similar pilgrimage. The Archbishop, newly appointed, felt that with all his various responsibilities, he could not make such a commitment at that time. So he asked me if I would help lead such a pilgrimage in his place. I accepted the invitation, not least because of a devotion to that most uncomfortable of Saints, St Francis, and a belief in the transforming power of pilgrimage and so last Friday, 35 Presbyterians, Episcopalians and Catholics (including several from our 2 parishes) set off together. We are remembering you,. ..please do remember us!!.'

While Fr Jock is in Assisi, Fr John Robinson and Fr Gordon Brown will cover the weekday masses; this weekend will be covered by Fr James Tracey (Vigil Mass) and Fr Jim Crampsey SJ (the 2 Sunday morning masses). We thank them all. ☺☺☺☺

This Friday 16th September at 7.00pm in St John's Church Hall, there is A MUSICAL EVENING – organised by the Justice and Peace group: Jim Roarty says 'You are invited to come along to St John's Church Hall for an evening of your favourite songs – and join in with them too! BYOB – cheese and nibbles will be provided. The funds raised will go towards buying food for the Bethany night shelters. Admission only £5'

Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund : - The Annual Special Collection will take place next Sunday 18 September

Derek Buglass, Director of Finance, writes: 'I am writing to thank you all for the generous response made to the additional special collection taken on 12 June 2016 to support the needs of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund (AICF). We received £65,000 from this collection and after we make a gift aid claim, anticipate that this will reach an amount well over £70,000, a great start in our drive to increasing the funds to support our priests in their retirement. The next special collection for the AICF will be taken next Sunday 18 September and if you wish to gift aid your donation, special collection envelopes are again being made available.

Many thanks in advance for your continuing support.

(NB. To claim gift aid on the AICF second collection, donors will have to complete the short gift aid declaration on the rear of the envelopes provided, even if they have an existing gift aid declaration for the parish and/or completed a gift aid envelope for the previous AICF collection).

WOULD YOU BE WILLING TO HELP WITH CHILDREN'S LITURGY?

Julie Harris and Una Gallagher write: 'We have thriving children's liturgy groups here in our two parishes. At St John's, we have 2 groups each Sunday at 9.30 mass – one for toddlers/babies to Primary 2 age, and the other for P3 to P7 children. At St Mary Magdalene's, we have a single group covering all ages. A volunteer takes each group on a Sunday and we operate this on a rota basis. We would really love to have some new volunteers! It really is a case of 'many hands make light work'. If you think you may be interested, or would like to just know a little bit more, then please get in touch. Our contact details are below. You may wish to just sit in once or twice before deciding whether it's for you. The children are really lovely - very engaged and communicative and it's very uplifting to spend time with them on a Sunday. If we get enough volunteers we would like to try and start a liturgy group at the St John's vigil mass too.' Julie Harris – 07919 2 5872 julieharris@allanmcdougall.co.uk. Una Gallagher – 657 2831.

Being Peace-Makers.

“So many in our world today are suffering from isolation, war and oppression. So much money is spent on the construction of armaments. Many, many young people are in despair because of the danger of nuclear war. Today as never before, we need communities of welcome; communities that are a sign of peace in a world of war. There is no point in praying for peace in the Middle East, for example, if we are not peace-makers in our own community; if we are not forgiving those in our community who have hurt us or with whom we find it difficult to live. Young people, as well as those who are older, are sensitive to this vision of peace. It must continually be announced so that hearts and minds are nourished.”
