WELCOME

If you're visiting, are new to the area, or just live here, you are most welcome in our sister parishes. We are delighted you have joined us. If you are new to the parish please make yourself known to Fr Jock and ask for details of how to register on the parishes' roll.

The Renewal of the St John's Legho Partnership – and the gift of a Processional Cross for the new Parish

Mike Knox writes: 'Legho becomes a Parish on 5 October and it was suggested that we could send them a Processional Cross as a gift. (The one they have presently is a luminous plastic one!). The Processional Cross used at St John's is a gift from Legho and is mounted on a stand made by Mgr Rae. This would mean that at the beginning of both our Sunday masses we would be reminded of each other's presence in a simple and unspoken way. It has been agreed that this weekend at the 2 St John's Masses, there will be a Leaving Collection to enable those who wish to contribute towards the cost of the gift – while a basket will also be left out a St Mary Maddalene's for anyone who wishes to contribute.'

The Venerable Margaret Sinclair 2017 Pilgrimage: The National Pilgrimage for the Beatification of the Venerable Margaret Sinclair will take place today Sunday 17 September at 2pm (Mass 4.30pm: Preacher Fr Richard Reid CSSR) at St Patrick's Church, 5 South Gray's Close, Cowgate, Edinburgh, EH1 1TQ.

Many congratulations to Eddie White, our deacon-in-training, who (will have) received the ministry of lectorate from Archbishop Cushley at the Diaconate Ordination Mass at St Mary's Cathedral on Saturday 16 September.

Eddie offers an update on his training below:

'This year I enter my third formation year in my journey towards the diaconate - or becoming a deacon. So far there has been 13 essays (approximately 40,000 words worth) and I am assured the essays don't only get harder, they get longer! One comment I often hear is, 'I couldn't ever do that level of study.' Whilst it isn't always fun (at deadline times especially) studying the work of the Church is deeply rewarding, fascinating and (don't tell my pupils – I'm a Maths teacher at Ross High) so much more meaningful than Mathematics!

The study is only one part of the journey. The work in the Parishes is at least as important as the academic study and both my wife, Tanya, and I have really enjoyed getting to be more involved across our two parishes. The welcome from parishioners in all ministries that either or both of us have been involved in really has helped. This year I have been involved in Eucharistic Ministry, including visiting a homebound parishioner, as well as reading at mass, writing bidding prayers, running Facebook and SoundCloud trials (more on the latter shortly.) It was great to meet so many people at the St John's Fayre, and even getting to meet some of your dogs, while I have just started recently attending the Parish Pastoral Council in St John's. The youth group – with St Mark's Episcopal Church - is also beginning to flourish well and this is another area Tanya and I get to work together in, and enjoy so much.

On Saturday 16th, I am due to watch two of my friends being ordained into the permanent diaconate and, at the same mass, I receive the ministry of Lector. This is one of what used to be called 'minor ordinations' on route to ordination as a deacon. Historically it would have given me the right to read the readings at mass. This time next year will be, God willing, my turn to receive the ministry of Acolyte (a kind of glorified altar server!).

And can I conclude by asking for your prayers – for myself, for Tanya, and for our three children, Fergus, Benedict and Eloise.'

Next Sunday, 24 September – at St Mark’s – our Inter-Church Youth Group meet between 6pm and 7.30pm – All (between P7 and S5) welcome - - for more information see Eddie, Tanya or Fr Jock .

An Appeal from the Little Sisters

Veronica McLauchlan writes: ‘I would like to appeal to parishioners on behalf of The Little Sisters of the Poor for bone china cups etc. Sister Ursula who looked after Monsignor Rae and Father Hennessy would like to serve her residents with nice China in the afternoon. I am happy to pick up at any time. My phone number is 0131 661 9516.’

FRESH START: Mark Robertson writes: ‘A big Thank You again to those in the parishes who have very kindly kept up donations of much needed household items. Please note the need for small electrical items in particular. Paul Bevan is still able to collect larger items from people's homes if they need this service, and shall continue to clear anything left at the back of St. John's to deliver to Fresh Start , as he works very close to their premises.

Appeals: We are in particular need of small electrical items: for instance, small lamps, toasters, kettles, hand blenders and radios. Thank you for your ongoing and continued support.’

A message from the J&P Group:

‘What to do with your old glasses - recycle. If you’ve worn glasses for a few years, you’ve probably got a few pairs that have an old prescription. Those glasses don’t need to be cluttering up your drawers – you can now recycle spectacles with Marie Curie who are supporting Lions Clubs International in recycling old glasses for people who need them in communities across Africa, India and Eastern Europe. All our shops will have boxes where spectacles can be dropped off for spectacle recycling. (Portobello shop on corner of High St and Bath Street)’

Creation Time Conversations at St Ninian’s

Rab Burnett writes: ‘Creation Time runs from 1st September, the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation in the Catholic Church, through to 4th October, the feast day of St. Francis of Assisi. It is a month-long prayerful observation of the state of the world, its beauty and the ecological crises that threaten it and all its inhabitants. In response to Pope Francis’ invitation in Laudato Si’ to an ‘ecological conversion’ we are hosting a series of ‘ecological faith conversations’. Our second session – Connectedness and Cry of the Earth is offered:-
Tuesday 19th September 2.00 – 3.00pm or 7.00 – 8.00pm or Wednesday 20th September 10.30 – 11.30am All welcome.’

There are libraries with books for anyone to borrow in both churches – and also another one in the meeting room in the Parish House – Fr Jock is also very keen that people feel free to borrow books from his own personal library – come and browse through it in the Parish House anytime (though best to ring first to check someone’s in..!)

A Request for Help Recording the Mass CD’s for the Housebound: We are still looking for someone - or several people - to take over the recording, editing and CD production of the weekly Sunday Mass to enable distribution to sick and housebound parishioners. To take on this role you need access to a PC or laptop with a CD/DVD drive. The full end to end process will take around 30 minutes – and if we manage to put together a rota of four volunteers that would only be once a month. Full training will be provided – it’s also a great opportunity to learn new skills! If interested, please contact Father Jock or Chris Vinestock. Many thanks to the first volunteer.....

Well done to Albert Caballero who cycled last Sunday from Glasgow to Edinburgh (45 miles). in aid of Bethany Night Shelters. Please see Albert if you wish to make a donation for this worthy cause

A Request for Prayers from the parish of St John the Divine, West Worthing, Sussex:

St John's is a small Anglican parish who are having a 'Fan the Flame' Mission from today, Sunday 17 September, to Thursday 21 September. Since St John's has a similar dedication and patron, they wrote to us asking for us to pray for them during their Mission – 'for the Coordinating Team, clergy, our missionaries and all who will be touched by the evening meetings' - and, if possible, to pray the Mission Prayer each day:

Almighty God our Heavenly Father, we ask you to bless the Parish of St John the Divine during the Fan the Flame Mission.

May all who take part in it be inspired to know, love and follow Jesus, that our whole community may be filled with your Spirit, to know the joy of faith in You, and share your love with one another.

We ask this through your son, Jesus Christ, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns for ever.

AMEN

Maria Igoe writes:

- 'The Healing Mass with anointing of the sick will be held on Monday 18 September at 2.30pm in St John's. The Rosary will be said at 2.15pm and the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available after Mass. Please feel welcome to come to the Hall for tea and cakes afterwards. If you require a lift, please phone Maria Igoe 669 0247.
- Mary's Meals, as most will know, feeds children in schools so that they can receive an education there. This has made a massive difference in countries where parents do not have food to give their children a meal every day. We can also support their education by giving each child a backpack with supplies they require. Each month an item will be suggested which you may wish to contribute. These things are small to us but make a huge difference in helping the pupils with their studies. For our first month you are asked to offer a backpack, which you may have and no longer need. For those who do not have a backpack, please consider donating a notebook, which will be invaluable for their studies. A small box will be placed at the back of the Church for your offerings. The box will be emptied most days. Phyllis McLeay will convey what we give, to helpers in Dundee, who make up the backpacks for distribution to needy children.'
