A REFLECTION BY MAIRI CLUNAS FOR TUESDAY'S FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION

'While at prayer with his friends on Mt Tabor the divine beauty radiates through Jesus' humanity – and they catch a glimpse of heaven on earth. Any experience of beauty is always a vehicle of the transcendent and takes us out of ourselves: a sunrise/sunset, the fragrance of a flower, the smile of a child etc. Open your eyes and heart to the sign posts for heaven which you meet each day.'

A Warm Welcome to Fr Ian Wilson OSA and Fr Paul Graham OSA of the Augustinian Community in Sighthill who are kindly celebrating this weekend's Masses and to Fr Jim Smith, with us on Saturday and Monday - Fr Jock returns from retreat that evening.

NOTICEBOARD

Fr Jock writes: ‘Every year, priests are encouraged/instructed to step back and take a week or so on retreat in order to get back in touch with the Lord of their work, rather than get consumed by and with the work itself...it’s seventeen months since my last retreat so last Tuesday, I set off for six days for the village of Trosly-Breuil, 50 miles north of Paris, and La Ferme, the Retreat Centre at the heart of the founding L’Arche community, where Jean Vanier lived for nearly 55 years before his death early in May this year. I have visited the community at Trosly over 20 times since first going there in 1992, and it is very much one of my spiritual homes - and sources of inspiration. It has been a particular opportunity to reflect on Jean Vanier, his life and work, and all I have learnt from him, and to visit his grave – I would be very grateful for your prayers for the retreat's final days and then the return home.....'

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING - TODAY SUNDAY 4 AUGUST

Our Parish Co-ordinators, Peter Gillam and Alison Connelly, write:

'Any remaining volunteers who have obtained PVG but have not yet attended the obligatory training course have a further opportunity to do so this Sunday 4 August immediately after Mass at the Cathedral. The venue is 63 York Place round the corner from the Cathedral and attendees are asked to arrive at 9.50am for a 10am start. The training normally lasts for about 90 minutes.

The trainer is Scott Mackenzie. those volunteers wishing to avail themselves of this opportunity should contact Scott directly at mack.mail@icloud.com so that he can keep a note of the numbers attending.

CATHOLIC VOTING RIGHTS AND CATHOLIC SCHOOLS:

Archbishop Leo Cushley writes:

'The Catholic Church and others presently have the right in Scotland to sit in the Council education committees and to vote on matters affecting our Catholic schools. On 22 August, the City of Edinburgh Council is to vote on a Green Party motion to remove those voting rights. If this motion is carried it will pose a serious threat to the Church's capacity to influence decisions regarding Catholic education and Catholic Schools in the City of Edinburgh. I would therefore ask you to contact your local councillors as a matter of urgency to vote against this motion. Write to your councillor soon: to facilitate a numerous response, a template letter is available on postcards. With thanks and every blessing.' (The Pastoral Letter from the archbishop on this subject and the postcards can be found at the back of both churches)

The Address of The City of Edinburgh Council is City Chambers, High Street, Edinburgh, EH1 1YJ

‘This powerful and highly topical exhibition tells the story of the Troubles through the 12 large scale murals of The People’s Gallery in Derry/Londonderry, Northern Ireland. The Bogside was the epicentre of the Troubles that began with a peaceful civil rights march in 1968 and ended with the Good Friday agreement in 1998. The murals by the Bogside Artists depict seminal events from the 30-year conflict as experienced by the artists and the local community.’

Council Budget Engagement Sessions - An Invitation To Get Involved in the Local Community - How would you spend £1billion?: Scott Neill writes: 'What council services would you prioritise where you live and citywide? This sounds like a lot of money, but it has to go a long way to meet the needs of our growing population. So, what can we do differently? What services are used and valued by you, your family, your community and fellow Edinburgh residents? Join us for a cuppa to help us plan our services at: Northfield Community Centre, 10 Northfield Road EH8 7PP Thursday 15 August 2pm-4pm North East Neighbourhood Office, 101 Niddrie Mains Road EH16 4DS Monday 26 August 2pm-4pm.'

A REQUEST FROM CAROLYN COXON:

'I am trying to finish a book about the hundred years of the music competitions in Edinburgh (Edinburgh's oldest surviving Festival, started in 1920). Illustrations are not easy to come by. St. John's school choir won The Primary Schools Trophy in 1941. (Edinburgh, unlike Glasgow, continued to hold competitions throughout the war.) Loretto Primary School in Musselburgh, won the same trophy in 1961. There should be a good picture somewhere of the St. John's school choir with a trophy - someone is bound to have taken one and it will be buried by now in a granny's photo album lying on a dusty top shelf. I would be most grateful if I could be put in touch with anyone who might be able to find any pictures. It may also be that someone in one of the parishes will have a memory, or even a photo of the Loretto choir in the early 60s.

St. John's also appears to have had very lively and hard working dance teams in the late 60s, early 70s, who often competed. 1974 especially. Same enquiry applies. Does anyone in the parish or in the school have a photo of a Scottish Dance Country Dance team around about that time?'
