WELCOME.... If you're visiting, are new to the area, or just live here, you are most welcome in our sister parishes. We are delighted you have joined us. If you are new to the parish please make yourself known to Fr Jock and ask for details of how to register on the parishes' roll.

Today is the annual DAY FOR LIFE, commemorated on the Sunday nearest the Feast of the Visitation (celebrated last Friday) – the theme this year is The Scourge of Domestic Abuse. There is a leaving collection to help provide resources to help bring healing and recover to those who have suffered its trauma and a leaflet you will be given as you leave the church. It is also the 53rd World Communications Day – there is letter from Archbishop Tartaglia that is available from the back of both churches, and (another – apologies) second collection next Sunday. The Collection goes to help fund the Catholic Media Office which seeks 'to increase awareness of the good work of the Church and the message of hope it offers to society.'

Many congratulations to, and prayers for, the 7 young candidates making their First Holy Communion at St Mary Magdalene's this Sunday -

Daniel Baranski, Mhairi Keast, Victoria Liszka, Alicja Lewinska, Murray McKenzie, Aoife O'Hanlon and Alessio Pacitti.

Tonight, Sunday, at 7.30pm - An Evening with Imam Hassan Rabbani – Portobello and Joppa Parish Church.

Some weeks ago, just after the massacre in the mosque in New Zealand, Imam Hassan, the first Moslem chaplain at Heriot Watt University, met Fr Jock, Sophia Marriage from St Mark's Episcopal Church, and Stewart Weaver from Portobello and Joppa Parish Church for lunch. Tonight – which is an initiative of PACT (Portobello and Area Christians Together – ie all the local churches) - is the outcome of our conversation: Imam Hassan will chat with Fr Jock about his life and calling, and then respond to any questions we wish to put to him.

This is how the event has been advertised on the Facebook pages of The Heriot Watt University Moslem Society and Zia-ul-Quran Mosque in Glasgow:

'Shaykh Hassan will be speaking at this interfaith event this Sunday. In recent months we have witnessed horrific terrorist attacks targeting Muslim, Christians and Jews. One way to deal with this pain is to have dialogue with our Abrahamic Brethren. This event has been organised by local Christian Faith Leaders of Portobello (Edinburgh). Shaykh Hassan will be asked about his journey of education and how he became an Islamic Scholar and faith leader. There will be an opportunity for the diverse audience to ask any questions in a safe and welcoming environment.'

Next Sunday is PENTECOST SUNDAY – a novena in preparation for this great feastday is on the reverse of the Sunday Plus.

This Friday, 7 June, the Scottish Churches Housing Action WALK OF UNITY 2019 will begin at St John's, Princes St and proceed to St John's, Portobello.

'We believe in a Scotland free of homelessness.' Come and join us to walk together from Princes Street to Portobello to raise awareness of homelessness and raise funds to help Scottish Churches Housing Action tackle homelessness. We will be walking as an act of Unity amongst the different churches. All are welcome to join us, people of all faiths and none, come and join the fun!

Come and walk from Princes Street to Leith (2.5 miles) or Leith to Portobello (3 miles) or all the way (5.5 miles). SO FAR OVER £21,000 has been raised – well on the way to funding two Skills Centres – so that the 70 children in Gift's Home, the Steka Children's Home, in Malawi can learn a trade when they need to...THANK YOU SO MUCH

Proposed Legho/Tanzania STEKA/Malawi Africa trip.

Tracy Burgess writes: 'The Legho Renewal Group would like to propose a trip to Legho Tanzania. The purpose of the group is to look at the connection between our community of St John's (and St Mary Magdalene's) and Legho Parish - past and present - and to nurture this link.

The connection needs to be with the people, with individuals.

So with this in mind we thought the best way to reconnect with the parishioners of Legho was to meet with them. This brings me to the first part of the proposed trip, Edinburgh to Legho/Tanzania.

The second proposal is, Portobello and Bingham/Edinburgh- Legho/Tanzania - STEKA/Malawi.

(We got a little carried away and thought... we will be in Africa anyway... how faraway can Tanzania be from Malawi?...As it turns out, further than we thought but close enough to consider.

STEKA would welcome us for a visit. With the recent fundraising and links with Gift this could be a wonderful experience.

If you are interested in finding out about this proposed trip please come along to the meeting we will organise in the coming weeks....

I have outlined a rough guide to dates and costs for your consideration:

Fly out of Edinburgh on 15 January 2020

Option 1: Edinburgh to Tanzania to Edinburgh - flights approximately £700 return.

1 or 2 weeks depending on your time available

(1x week spent with the people in Legho)

(1x week spent relaxing and enjoying Tanzania- safaris etc)

Option 2: Edinburgh – Tanzania – Malawi – Edinburgh - flights approximately £1000 return.

Approximately 2 weeks depending on your time available.

(The Malawi end: 4-5 days spent with the children at STEKA, 3-5 days enjoying and exploring Malawi).

Accommodation can vary depending on your choice :

Tanzania/ Legho - £20 per day including breakfast and evening meal.

Malawi/STEKA - $40 per night double room.

$10~15 per night in dorms.

Transport/ safari/ trips will be extra.

January in Tanzania will be summer temperatures. January in Malawi will be rainy season (on average one hour per day of heavy rain). There may be an opportunity to visit Malawi as a separate trip later in the year but nothing so far has been confirmed. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions on 669 4860/07939 662962.

Lourdes Appeal for Medical Staff: The Archdiocese of St Andrews & Edinburgh Pilgrimage to Lourdes is appealing for more medical staff – and especially nurses – to join them on this year’s pilgrimage, 5 - 12 July 2019. Some funding is available for those interested. Could that be you? If so, contact Claire Banks on 07930 928489.
