14th Sunday of the Year – 9 July 2017

WELCOME

If you're visiting, are new to the area, or just live here, you are most welcome in our sister parishes. We are delighted you have joined us. If you are new to the parish please make yourself known to Fr Jock and ask for details of how to register on the parishes' roll.

This Sunday is Sea Sunday when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops. If you would like to support the Apostleship of the Sea (AoS), the Church's official maritime welfare agency, please hand in an envelope to the Parish House – or to donate online please visit www.apostleshipofthesea.org.uk The AoS supports seafarers both practically and spiritually. And please remember seafarers in your prayers.....

Fr Jock will set off on his annual pilgrimage to Lourdes on Thursday, 13 July – the pilgrimage has 400 pilgrims, with over fifty sick in the St Frai Hospital so is very much a working one: please pray for its fruitfulness. Fr Jock promises to remember the parishes, and everybody in them, at the Grotto. He returns on Saturday 22 July. If anyone would like him to take any petitions with him, please hand them in by Wednesday night.

While he is away, the following priests will kindly provide cover:

- Canon Andrew Monaghan - the weekday masses;
- Fr James Tracey - Saturday evening
- Fr Stefan Park OSA - the two Sunday morning masses.

There will be no Mass on Saturday morning.

'SUMMER IN THE FOREST' comes to Edinburgh - showing at 2.10pm on Saturday July 8, Monday July 10 and Thursday July 13 at the Cameo Cinema at 38 Home St in Tollcross .

“Summer in the Forest’ is a remarkable new film about the inspirational Catholic philosopher Jean Vanier and of the L’Arche communities he has founded. The film tells the story of the search for love and friendship by the intellectually disabled members of the the L’Arche communities in France and Bethlehem. It is comic, touching and moving. As one critic said “it is extremely rare for a film to have the power to change lives. This one really might”.

‘THE SHEER HUMANITY ABSOLUTELY SHINES THROUGH VIEWING SHOULD BE COMPULSORY’

Daily Mail

‘COULD NOT BE MORE TIMELY’

Telegraph

‘EXCEPTIONALLY MOVING’

Sight & Sound

‘BREATHTAKINGLY BEAUTIFUL ... THE KEYNOTE IS JOY IT WILL REMIND YOU OF WHAT IT REALLY MEANS TO BE STRONG’

Guardian

‘REVOLUTIONARY’

Daily Express

‘The film follows Philippe, Michel, Andre and Patrick, who were once locked away and forgotten in asylums. In the 1960s a young philosopher, Jean Vanier, took a stand, secured their release and set-up a community for them all to live together. Jean Vanier changed forever the way we understand intellectual disability and went on to set up further similar communities worldwide - places where people with and without learning disabilities share life together. [There are now 147 in the world, spread over five continents, including one here in Edinburgh, based in Leith and Restalrig].

Summer in the Forest invites us to abandon the rat race and forge new friendships. Amid the ancient trees, Philippe, Patrick, Jean and the others welcome us into their lives. If there are rules to break, they will be broken and if there is a truth to be told, they will tell it. Michel wants to share with us his war torn past, Andre is desperate for a date, and young David will prove himself a hero in the fight against the forces of evil.'

For those unable to go, you will be able to download the video from the website at a special reduced price for parishioners. You will need to quote a Parish discount code SUMMER2017.'

NOTICEBOARD

A SPUC Scotland Petition is available at the back of both churches to oppose the BMA campaign to extend abortion - it has just voted to support its decriminalisation. John Deighan, the SPUC Chief Executive Officer, writes: 'Please sign the petition to help mobilise opposition to this threat to future generations of children'.

There will be no Vocations Mass at St. Joseph's House, Gilmore Place during the months of July and August.

Vatican Youth Survey: Pope Francis has called a Synod of Bishops for 2018 to discuss young people. This is to make the Church more aware of what young people think, go through and need in life. Before the Synod begins he would like to know how young people actually feel about important issues in life. You can participate online (choose: 'English') <https://survey-synod2018.glauco.it/limesurvey/index.php/147718>

New Dawn Scotland: 3-7 July at St Andrews. Ages 12-18. This year's New Dawn in Scotland will have a special focus on youth people. With £50 contribution and their sleeping bags every young person will be looked after while they follow and are involved in the special activities (teachings, entertainment, acting based on Scripture, games...) designed for their age.
